Not long to go...

The Rock your life event is coming up soon, and I would love to see you there for a weekend full of fun and growth, if you haven't already done so, click here to book a ticket or find out more.

I am also speaking at some events in September for small business month, so check out the speaking page for more details.

This weeks motivational story - Guard Yourself

There are two things that irritate and frustrate me nearly to the point of no return. That is either being ripped off, taken advantage of, or seeing someone else go through the same thing. We all need to guard ourselves from being exposed to this type of behaviour.

Recently I came into contact with Jeff, a man who had a very successful business concept which in turn became a very successful business basically overnight. As this wasn't his core business, it really started to affect what he normally did and as a result of that, his main business started to suffer.

I met with him over lunch and we both agreed that he needed to surround himself with people whose skill was in where he was frustrated.
