Hello from New York..

It is proving to be quite and extraordinary experience.... With daily delights on the subways... Michael was performing the other day. Sometimes it tap dancing, rap dancing, wonderful music...and magical sights that we would never see in NZ.

We are about to start our third movie tomorrow....wow! It is a music video and I have chosen to keep a kiwi influence with a piece from the "flight of the concords"...it will be groovy.

Yesterday we all reviewed our 2nd movie...a continuity piece. My one proved to be a hit with everyone laughing so hard they cried..the teacher thought it was the funniest thing he had see all year. So I am onto something for sure.

I stared in one of the movies...dressed up as an old women (hmmm I know I am twice there ages but really!!) Great make up by me - lucky I had a good supply of MAC on hand. The director of the day - Martha loved my look, she would at only 28yrs. It makes me what to sign up for Botox.

Earlier this week we got out of school early...like at 6pm! So a bunch of us went uptown to check out the apple store on 5th. As it turns out there was no need to hurry because the store never closes!! Very cool. You can go and check email and play with all the toys. Kid in a lolly shop...

Last week I went to a roof top film in Brooklyn...unfortunately it was raining so hard it become a basement film instead. It was a bunch of short film made by independents. Very inspiring.(they also have a wine sponsor, so free wine hmm ...very smart people!) I am going to go again, this time a venue in Manhattan on Friday night - The theme is love story's (will pack a hanky).

Some of these snaps are taken around school in Union Square...I haven't ventured too far. About to head to the Empire State Building to convince them that its ok for me to shoot there for my final film! Wish me luck.

Thank you for sending me back notes from afar its always great to hear what is happening back home.

Stay warm...and always follow your dreams.

Big Hugs

Sheena xx
